

“Andrew and her dog lucy”

By: Andrea Keen

Chapter 1

One summer day in June Andrew went out in the woods to see her dog lucy. Andrew loved her dog lucy so much. Lucy would go for walks with Andrew. Andrew and lucy would also play with one another all day long until it was time for Andrew to go home. Andrew had to keep it a secret that she had a dog from her parents because she found the dog on the side of the road when she was riding her bike. If she told her parents about the dog they would won't to try to find the real owners and Andrew did not won't to find the real owners.

The next day Andrew went to play with lucy when she got back home her parents asked her if she has been hiding a dog from them? She told her parents that she could not lie to them and then said yes I have but I do not won't to find the real owners because I love lucy so much.

Chapter 2

Her parents told her that they had to find the real owners because they might miss the dog so much. True but I found her so I am going to keep her. Then her parents said NO you are not we are going to make 500 signs and put them up in the neighborhood hopefully the owners will see the sign call us. Said Andrews parents. If the owners do not call within 10 days you can keep her. Andrew started jumping up and down. The next two weeks Andrew was worried that someone would call about lucy. Every day Andrew would go play withy lucy sill hoping no one will call.

Chapter 3

The next morning Andrew ran to her father and mother and said can I keep lucy now and her farther said yes. Then Andrew ran outside and into the woods to go see lucy when she saw lucy Andrew said to lucy hugging lucy I get to keep you. Then that afternoon the phone rang Andrew's farther picked up the phone and said “Hello” then after a few minutes he put down the phone. He said Andrew come here. Andrew come here he said softly. Andrew said what is wrong. Her father said the people I just talked to on the phone were the owons of lucy and want her and they miss her so much Andrew said “NO” you already said I could have her so I am keeping her. Then Andrew ran out of the house and into the woods again to see lucy..

Chapter 4

Then Andrew started thinking what if I was the real owons and I lost lucy and I called and asked for her back and they said “NO” you can't have her. Then she ran to her father and said I changed my mind I want to give lucy back to the real owons. Said Andrew. Her father said “OK.” Then He said go get lucy then.

Chapter 5

Andrew went to get lucy. Andrew was thinking as she was walking about all of the good times she and lucy had together and all the times that they sill could have together if she wasn't giving lucy back to the real owons and then she said to herself I love lucy a lot I always will. When her father saw her he said Put lucy in the car and we will go. So Andrew put lucy in the car and got in. Her father drove out of their driveway.

Chapter 6

When they arrived Andrew got lucy out of the car and walked up to the door and rang the bell a little boy opened the door and said “Hello” Andrew asked the little boy if his parents were home. The little boy said yes Andrew told the little I need to talk to them. Said Andrew. Right when Andrew said that they walked to the door and said “How may I help you?” Andrew asked is this your dog they said yes we have been looking for her forever. Andrew said well here she is the owons told Andrew she could visit any time Andrew said “OK.” Then Andrew said good bye to lucy and went and got in her father’s car. Her father drove out of their driveway.

Chapter 7

The next day Andrew went to visit lucy she rang the door bell and the little boys mother opened the door and said “Hello come in” Andrew said “OK.” Lucy ran to the door. Andrew started hugging lucy. Andrew asked owons if she could take lucy for a walk the owons said yes then Andrew got lucy opened the door and went out Andrew told lucy lets go. Lucy obeyed Andrew verrey well too. When Andrew and lucy got back Andrew told them that she had to. Andrew went home and her father said to her, “We are moving.” Andrew was verrey sad. She told her father she was going to see lucy. He said “OK.” Andrew ran out of the door and to the owons house she told them that she was moving as walked out of the door the owons then told Andrew she could keep lucy. Andrew was once again happy.
