

“The Old White Dog”

By: Hunter Ball

Once upon a time there was a white dog. He lived in a forest down a snake-like road. He wrote, sang, and walked. One day the white dog went to his car and a person was spying on him. The white dog was in shock when he saw his first human.

The human was in shock too. He could not believe that the rumor was true. Once the human got out of the car the human said, “What is your name?” The white dog answered, “I do not have a name. The white dog asked the human why he came. The human answered, “Because there was a rumor that was going around that there was a talking dog that lived in a forest. The dog said, “Yes the rumor is true than.” The human and the dog started to talk for a while. They found that they had a lot in common.

The white dog and the human saw each other for the rest of their lives and they lived happily ever after.
